Sgt. Morris At Firing Range

Training instructor is Sgt. C. H. Wallace, of Buckingham (left) with Sgt. G. M. Morris, Jr. (center) taking a twice-yearly shotgun and pistol course at the firing range, III Division headquarters, Appomattox. At the right is assistant training instructor, Trooper C. E. Davis, of Farmville. Lt. E. C. Riner explains that each trooper, sergeant, lieutenant and captain must take the course to test proficiency in firing. Another thing that applies to everyone involved: there are cotton earplugs for students, instructors and by-standers. The ammunition is high powered and the noise generated is a factor to be considered.

Too Late For Rescue

Appomattox County Rescue Squad members Richard Bartlett and Kelly O'Brien (above) were sent out to direct traffic from Rt. 460 to the Saturday evening dinner at the Appomattox Primary School where more than 200 were expected for the 5th District Rescue Squad meeting. What they found at the stoplight at the intersection of Court St. and 460 was a large - size beaver which had been shot and evidently discarded on or close to the roadway. As conservationists, they both feel that it's hard to understand the actions of anyone who would destroy an animal in this way. Beavers are found in the county in many of the streams.

Mr. Robert Watson and family.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Ferguson returned to Maryland after spending Easter in Appomattox, visiting relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Julian Hamlet have returned home after the Easter vacation in Maryland.

SEVENTH DAY ADVENTIST

Rufus B. McDannel, Pastor
Sabbath School Lesson for April 9-15 Lesson 3
Subject: Made Right With God By Faith.
Scripture Text -- "Being justified freely by His grace through the redemption that is in Chrast Jesus." Rom. 3:24.
"Since men have nothing by which they may set themselves right with God, justification must come as a free gift. Only when in all humility a man is prepared to acknowledge that he is destitute of the glory of God and that he has nothing in himself that would commend him to God is he enabled by faith to accept justification as a free gift."
"The destinctive meaning attached to the term 'grace' in the N.T. and especially in the writings of Paul, is the abundant saving love of God toward sinners as revealed in Jesus Christ."
"As in the case of the Israelites in their deliverance from Egypt, so also now our participation in the plan of redemption from sin requires the exercise of faith, a personal acknowledgement and acceptance of Jesus as our Redeemer, with all that such a step implies."
D.D.A., Bible Commentary, Rom. 3:24.
Will just give Scripture Texts for each day of lesson outline from April 9-15. Part 1. Sinners Justified By Faith. Rom. 3:21, 22 "But now the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets; even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe: for there is no difference. Part. 2. Boasting Excluded "Whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation for the remission of sins that are past through the forbearance of God; His righteousness, I say, at this time, that He might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus. Where is boasting then? It is excluded. By What? of works? Nay; but by the law of faith. Therefore we conclude that a man is justified by faith without the deeds of the law. Is He the God of the Jews only? Is He not also of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles, also: seeing it is one God, which shall justify the circumcision by faith and uncircumcision through faith. Part. 3. Faith Establishes The Law. "Do we then make void the law through faith? God forbid: we establish the law." Part 4. How God Justifies the ungodly. "Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace but of debt. But to him that worketh not but believeth on Him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness. Even as David also describeth the blessedness of man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works, saying Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered, Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute sin.." Part 5. Not through Law but through Faith. "For the promise, that he should be the heir of the world, was not to Abraham, or to his seed through the law, but through the righteousness of faith. Rom. 4:13. Part. 6. Imputed Righteousness. Please read Rom. 4:20-22 for all scripture texts for each day for the week from April 9 to April 15. It was God's purpose that Abraham should be an outstanding example of the power of faith.
